

Your IESNA Oregon Section is hosting the following "Webinar"

Date: November 8th 4pm - 5:30pm

Cost: $30.00 per person for Non-IESNA Members
$25 .00 per person for Members (cash or check preferred for this event)

Location of Webinar:

Interface Engineering
708 SW 3rd Avenue Suite #400
Portland, OR. 97204

Please RSVP by Monday November 6th!

Reply to this e-mail or call Mark Whitney at 503-464-7718.

Topics will include Integration, Design and budget, technology, and photography! Full details below:

IESNA VIRTUAL SEMINAR ("Webinar")
NOVEMBER 8, 2006

LEARN: The Designer's Perspective on the Importance of Quality Lighting

Speakers:

ANDREA HARTRANFT, LC
DAVID C. GHATAN, LC Associate
DEREK PORTER, IALD

Level of Instruction: Basic

4:00PM - 5:30PM Pacific Standard Time

Join us for a presentation by three designers on their perspectives and challenges.

Topics will include:

- * Integration issues
- * Design and budget challenges
- * Technology employed
- * Photographing the installation

EDUCATIONAL CREDITS FOR WEB CAST ATTENDEES

AIA - LEARNING UNITS (LUs)

This web cast is approved for 1.5 LU credits with the American Institute of Architects (AIA), through its Continuing Education Systems (CES)

NCQLP - Learning Education Units (LEUs)

It is the responsibility of each participant to keep record of his/her attendance at this seminar and to self-declare LEUs to NCQLP at the end of the three-year period.

IESNA – CEUs - This web cast does NOT qualify for IESNA CEUs - it is below the 2 1/2 hour minimum.